NOTE: SOME SMALL PRIVATE PARCELS OF LAND MIGHT BE SHOWN AS PUBLIC. Every effort has been made to make this map as accurate as possible; however, land boundaries and features on this map may change. The cartographer, publisher and all others who provided information for this map assume no liability, whatsoever, for any use to which this map may be put. UTV/ATV routes available at grantcounty.org. County roads are open to ATV travel.

This map was funded in part with a grant from the Grant County Economic Tourism and Resource Committee. Details about the grant can be found at www.co.grant.wi.gov. Published in cooperation with the Grant County Tourism Council.
Welcome to Grant County

Historic Small Towns and Sites

Bagsley
This small community, dating back to 1869, is a gem in a network of dots on the Mississippi River island. It was founded by a family of Swedish farmers, who settled here for fishing and recreational use. Home to the Thunder in Valley Rodeo.

Cassville
The historic village is known as a center of Snoeze Farming, the world's largest farm, producing vegetables, fruits, and flowers for local and national markets. Cassville is also known for its beautiful, historic homes and churches. Hours: Tuesday - Saturday, 9 am - 5 pm.

Cuba City
This small town, founded in 1855, is home to the world's largest opera house, built in 1898. The opera house is now a museum, featuring a collection of antiques and memorabilia.

Deweyville
This small town, founded in 1853, is home to the world's largest shoe factory, which was established by a local bootmaker. The factory is now a museum, featuring a collection of historical artifacts.

Fennimore
This small town, founded in 1855, is home to the world's largest bicycle shop, which was established by a local inventor. The shop is now a museum, featuring a collection of historical bicycles.

Lancaster
This small town, founded in 1855, is home to the world's largest pumpkin patch, which is now a popular tourist attraction. The patch is open to the public.

Platteville
This small town, founded in 1855, is home to the world's largest cheese factory, which was established by a local dairy farmer. The factory is now a museum, featuring a collection of historical cheese-making artifacts.

Deale's Mill
This small town, founded in 1855, is home to the world's largest flour mill, which was established by a local grain merchant. The mill is now a museum, featuring a collection of historical milling equipment.

Lancaster
This small town, founded in 1855, is home to the world's largest apple orchard, which is now a popular tourist attraction. The orchard is open to the public.

Platteville
This small town, founded in 1855, is home to the world's largest potato patch, which is now a popular tourist attraction. The patch is open to the public.

Welcome to Grant County.

Wisconsin begins here.

www.grantcounty.org